BREVITIES.

-The Arabs will ball successfully. -Dull day in police circles yesterday. -Bayliss, of the Commercial hotel, has returned to the city.

-The I. O. O. F., of this city, is rapidly increasing in numbers. _The Eckert is still at work raising the shaft of the Louisinas.

- John Scheel's Ninth street cottage i approaching completion. -F. M. Ward proposes to become candidate for county treasurer. -Lunching at saloons has become popular amusement in this city.

-Candee, of the firm of Safford, Morris & Candee, is absent at La Salle.

-There will be a joint meeting of council to-night -so rumor says. -The foundation of the new Catholic church will be commence next week. -Casper Yost is spoken of as a possibl radical candidate for county treasurer.

-The drizzling rain of yesterday af ternoon cooled the air and laid the dust. -Convention or no convention, is now the question among the democrate of the city. -A Liberal Reform Association has been organized in this city. It is a touch not taste not society. -Tickets of the German Lutheran school picnic at Flora Garden next Monday are selling rapidly. -The new boiler for the new tug for Horner, Wood & Co., of New Orleans, is being made by Torrence & O'Brien.

-The Delta base ball club, since its victory over the Mound City Pastimes has regained confidence in its balling abilities -The individual, who fell through the sidewalk and broke his leg, talks of suing the city to recover damages. So the Sun -A number of philanthropic ladies of the city are agitating the question of having a fair for the benefit of the needy inmates of the Perry House. -One of the instruments belonging to the signal station at shis point is out of order. and the signal man may be compelled to visit Washington to have it repaired.

-The valuable property of Joseph Mc-Kenzie, on the northwest corner of Washington avenue and Sixth street, will be sold to the highest bidder, on next Saturday. Sale on the premises.

-Business in the city is quiet, with hopes of improvement. The demand for white corn has increased, but there is none in the market. No grain of any coase quence is now being received. -THE BULLETIN office was, last night, the receipient of a delicious serenade by the Æolian band. The music was good, and, we are sure, apprecioated by every one about the establishment. Come again, gentlemen. -Miss Jane E. Weeden, of Onarga, Ill., member of the Society of Friends, and will lecture in the Presbyterian Church at eight o'clock Sunday evening next. -Since May 11th to August 24th, the city has issued orders upon the treasury to the amount of $7,960 13. This is not a agent of the American Peace Society," large amount for the time in which it was expended-three months and two weeks. -The police investigating committee the rooms lately occupied by W. G. Worth- met yesterday and agreed upon a report. ington in very good style, and, as an artist, They will recommend the abolishment of the fee system and raise the salaries of the police constables from $75 per month to $83.83. -Judge Mulkey, who is seeking health at Crittenden Springs, is not finding what he is in search of, but hopes by persistent devotion to the business to make success follow earnest effort and return to Cairo weighing a ton.

-Judge Bross, tired of hard labor, is thinking of a search for a lodge in some vast wilderness, some boundless contiguity of shade, where warm weather and labor are not known, and Weiss beer exhilerates without inebriating.

The movement to build a Baptist church in this city is progressing satisfactorily. The board of trustees have been organized, Mr. J. P. Gamble, chairman, aud propose to use every possible exertion to commence the building the coming fall.

-The Sun wishes to know whether the republicans of the county intend to hold a convention to nominate a candidate for county treasurer. Well, do they? How would a square stand up partisan fight this fall agree with their digestion ?

-If the water in our rivers continues to fall they will dry up. Nothing can be more certain than this. It is a fact that needs but to be stated to be accepted as true. St. Louis and Paducah are already inland towns, and Cairo stands at the head of navigation.

-The committee to which was referred the anti-hog ordinance petitions will report in favor of the repeal of the ordinance and provide that hogs running at large shall be marked and the owners' names registered by the City Clerk. All unmarked or unregistered hogs are to be impounded and sold.

-Dangerous-the holes in the levee sidewalk at the corner of Eighth street. A twenty-foot fall and a law suit could be had, easy. By the time Devore gets to those holes with his two industrious workmen they will have spread over the entire walk-the holes, not the workmen A hole will be all that can be seen of the walk by that time.

-Among the arrivals at the St. Charles yesterday were the following: Bart. Sewell, Chicago; H. Basket, clerk of the City of Chester; Jas. Morris, Missouri; W. H. Stiles, Ohio; Ed. D. Hubbard, St. Louis. Mo.; Thos. J. Haugh, Columbia, La.; Jas. Fitzgerald, St. Louis; W. H. Shepard, St. Louis; H. G. Gerald, Cairo; Capt. Crabston, of the steamer Capital City; Geo. W. Jones, St. Louis; F. E. Peebles, city; E carpets, gold and silver watches, dry G. Mendenhall, Cincinnati; Chas. Plerce, wife and child, New Orleans; W. E. Hall and family, New Orleans.

-The Rev. T. J. Shores and THE BULcome reconciled. When the reverend prices, at gentleman saw the efforts we made to bring peace to Rov. Friend's flock, and taught himself to appreciate our efforts in the cause of religion, be concluded that it was his Christian duty to become our fast F. Bross, County Judge, presiding: Jacon friend, and he has done so. Therefore, we feel happy. All our old-time enemies are being reconciled to us-Pope, Boyle Wood, Summer well, Munn, Shores, Bradly, and a host of others. We have no doubt the millenium is about to dawn. We teel it in our bones; we see it, like the
